Looking at the matter from an unbiased standpoint, the Freshmen are not to be blamed, for it is the natural result of the process through which they have gone.

This state of affairs might probably be remedied or at least its evils mitigated by a postponement of the season of pledging until the Freshmen shall have had time to learn that there are other branches of the institution beside that branch listed in the roll book as the Freshman Class Roll.

At any rate this is a matter which may well be the subject matter of some thought, especially by those composing the Pan-Hellenic Council and by all who have the best interests of Vanderbilt University at heart.

This is merely a suggestion and is meant only as such—still the fact remains that some change is needed. Is there a better remedy at hand?

ANOTHER MASS MEETING

LEADER-GOLDSMITH GETS BUSY

On Friday, Oct. 9, the second mass-meeting of the year was held in Kissam Hall dining-room soon after supper. Only a few were present, but those present made up in enthusiasm for the lack of numbers. Leader of the Cheer Goldsmith worked hard and showed that he was fully capable to fill the office to which he had been elected.

It was suggested that Vanderbilt be represented in the parade Thursday night by a float and the price of the float to be raised by popular subscription. Messrs. Mayfield, Wilson and Souby were appointed as a committee to collect this fund and prepare the float.

A prize of fifty dollars is offered for the best float, and, of course, we hope to land the money. If we are so fortunate the money will be used to engage a band for the Van-
