Kirkland. Dr. William M. Anderson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Nashville, delivered an address to the class.

The Founder's Medal was won by William Thompson Briggs, of Nashville, a son of Dr. Charles Briggs. His grades for the four years were among the highest ever made at the college.

The graduates who have received hospital appointments are:

Ferrin Young, St. Vincent Hospital, Birmingham; H. L. Fowler, National Jewish Hospital for Consumptives, Denver, Colo.; J. H. Traylor, Bellevue Hospital, New York; Bayard Sullivan, Bellevue Hospital; D. A. Lehman, Bellevue Hospital; A. L. Stabler, Lincoln Hospital, New York; W. E. Lucey, Waco Hospital, Waco, Tex.; J. C. Culley, Baroness Erlanger Hospital, Chattanooga; O. B. Rogers, Knoxville General Hospital, Knoxville; A. N. Bobbitt, Brooklyn City Hospital, New York; A. A. Barron, Nashville City Hospital; and W. S. Keys, Nashville City Hospital.

Besides the graduates in medicine, there were two graduates as trained nurses from the Hospital Department, which was recently established.

UNIVERSITY EVENTS.

This year's election of Bachelor of Ugliness had an unfortunate termination. For some years there has been a tendency toward corruption in this sacred ceremony, and charges have come out that there was "voting early and often." This year the stuffing of the ballot box was of Tammany proportions, and the poll inspectors detected many repeaters. As a result of these charges, the successful candidate, Noel T. Dowling ('08), resigned, and Chancellor Kirkland declared the election void. No blame attached to Mr. Dowling, who was the victim of his zealous partisans. The other contestants were W. T. McLain ('07), D. H. Morton ('09), and Ed. H. West ('09). Shades of Dr. Billy Dodd!

The Calumet Club held its third annual banquet on Tuesday evening, June 15, at the Maxwell House. This club is a chapter of the literary fraternity known as Sigma Upsilon, organized some years ago by Neil Cullom ('08), from the literary clubs of several universities. Robert S. Henry is President of the Vanderbilt chapter.
